

LAW FAQs

Is it hard?

No harder than any other A-level course! Just put in hard work and you will do great work

Do I have to become a lawyer if I study Law?

No! The skills you gain studying Law are valuable to all professions – problem-solving, research, presentation and analysis. All these are transferable skills

Do I have to learn things off by heart?

Yes, legal principles and cases, but we use lots of fun memory aids to help you

Do I have to study Law A-level to go on to do a Law degree?

No! But, studying Law A-level will give you a good foundation and allow you whether you actually enjoy the subject

What can I do as a career?

Lots of things like:

- Barrister
- Barrister's clerk
- Chartered legal executive
- Licensed conveyancer
- Solicitor
- Advice worker
- Accountant

020 8303 1887

admin@blackfen.bexley.sch.uk