

Geography: What in the World do you know...?

1. Colour code and label the 7 continents on the world map below?

2. Define what a continent is and describe how it is different from a country?

3. A) Select the 5 most important countries (globally significant) in the world?

- B) For each of these countries explain why they are globally significant?

4. Go to this database site:

<https://www.cia.gov/library/publications/the-world-factbook/>

A) Select each of your 5 countries and provide 1 piece of data that suggest that this country is globally significant?

B) Explain how this data makes this country globally significant?

Country	Data	Explanation of how this data makes this country globally significant

5. Define what Human Geography is and give an example

6. Define what Physical Geography is and give an example

7. Define what Environmental Geography is and give an example

8. Define the following Geographical scales

Geographical Scale	Definition
Local Regional National International
Global	