

Coronavirus – Supporting pupils <https://www.childbereavementuk.org/coronavirus-supporting-pupils>

With links to useful information including:

- Delivering sad news – telling a young person that someone they know has died
- Managing grief
- Remembering
- Children’s understanding of death
- Supporting children through difficult times
- BBC bitesize with support and guidance from our bereavement services team

Supporting a bereaved pupil <https://www.childbereavementuk.org/online-learning-for-schools>

A step-by-step training guide plus resource bank to empower education professionals supporting bereaved pupils in school. A comprehensive guide, which includes:

- Children’s understanding of death including SEND
- Managing grief – emotions http://sabp.lgfl.org.uk/section_B3_a.html
- Managing grief - behaviours http://sabp.lgfl.org.uk/section_B3_b.html
- The role of the school
- Death and grief in the curriculum

Managing bereavement:

A guide for schools <https://www.childbereavementuk.org/Handlers/Download.ashx?IDMF=4b13d694-2038-4918-90b3-13c06100aafb>

A downloadable guide to managing bereavement within school. This also includes:

- Developing a bereavement policy or charter <https://www.childbereavementuk.org/developing-a-bereavement-policy>
 - Managing a Sudden Death <https://www.childbereavementuk.org/managing-a-sudden-death>
- Key considerations when responding to a sudden death in the school community.

The website has additional information

- Books, films and resources
- For Young People
- When a child or family grieves
- When a baby or child dies

If you need additional information or support please contact them at schools@childbereavementuk.org or on their National Helpline 0800 02 888 40(available Monday to Friday 9am to 5pm)