

A student perspective: RS (Philosophy and Ethics)

Why did you choose this subject?

I have always found religion interesting and wanted to develop on this from GCSE while also learning about philosophy and ethics.

Give examples of what you have studied in this subject:

The soul, mind and body.

The afterlife.

Utilitarianism.

What do you enjoy most about studying this subject?

The interesting content and how it changes your perspective on everything. The discussion and debate work and being able to read and discuss various theories and ideologies on each topic.

What Advice to someone who is considering this subject:

Have an open mind and be willing to accept there isn't definitive answers. Be ready to do lots of reading – a lot of this is in your own time. You will need to write a lots of essays – in fact the whole exam is just long essays so good planning skills are needed.

What subjects do you study alongside this one?

English Literature and Fine Art.

What are your plans Post-18?

University to study Philosophy or a related degree