

A student perspective: Sociology

Why did you choose this subject?

I wanted to choose something I didn't really know much about and hadn't already studied at GCSE. I did a lot of background reading and asked questions before choosing this subject and once I did that I thought the topics sounded really interesting and applicable to real life.

What do you enjoy most about studying this subject?

I enjoy the fact that it applies to our lives now so I can learn how society works and what it does. I really enjoy being able to discuss in class and compare different theorists' viewpoints

What Advice to someone who is considering this subject:

You'll love it, the teachers are amazing and it gives you such a big insight into the ways a society functions. You will need to make sure you learn theories really well and that you are prepared to read. You should also make sure you like writing essays and that you are organised and keep your notes up to date.
